

South Senators Still Strong With Filibuster

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's continuous session on civil rights moved into its third day today with Southern senators giving every appearance they can keep talking against such measures indefinitely.

Nor was there any sign of a possible early break in the stalemate through compromise or by a limitation on debate.

Forty-eight hours—two full days—of the non stop session ticked off at noon.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) held the floor for the dixie band at that time.

The Southern forces had come through the night on the shoulders of only two of their number.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D-NC) carried through until the early morning. He yielded the floor at 4:43 a.m. to Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) who kept it until 1:44 when Ellender took over.

There were repeated breaks—momentary rest spells for the speakers—but however from quorum calls that forced the civil rights backers to bring in enough of their forces to provide a majority attendance of 51 senators.

One major roll call came when Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La.) proposed an amendment to declare that "forceful (school) integration should be resisted by all legal means." Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas moved to kill Long's amendment, and this was done 84-8.

Ervin, a one-time justice of the North Carolina Supreme court, devoted much of his speech to talk about the Supreme Court's decisions in the civil rights field.

And during the night, the text of the high court's Monday ruling on cases concerned with the 1957 Civil Rights Act were put in to the record of the Senate proceedings.

This was done by Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, to some hoisting from Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.).

Eastland, who first objected to putting the decisions in the record, called them "crap" and "tripe."

But before the record was printed Eastland had his own language laundered a bit.

"Crap" was changed to "crap trap" and "tripe" to "useless materials." When Johnson took over from Ervin, he pounded on a theme that the civil rights legislation is an important element in the Communist party line.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate sputtered along on a couple of legislative cylinders today. Its committee power plant short-circuited by a filibuster.

Instead of the dozen or more committees which regularly handle hearings, bills and investigations daily, only three groups scheduled meetings as the non-

Santa Fe Train, Truck Hit, 17 Persons Dead

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A swift Santa Fe passenger train and a two-trailer oil rig collided Tuesday night with a mighty blast of oil that set jackknifed coaches afire and shriveled the locomotive.

At least 17 persons died—14 passengers, the engineer and fireman, and the oil rig driver.

Sixty-eight were injured of whom 45 remained in hospitals, many of them badly burned.

The San Francisco Chief No. 2, carrying 76 passengers, had left San Francisco at 11:15 a.m. and was rolling through lush cotton and alfalfa farmland about seven miles west of this oil-well city.

The time was 3:18 p.m. The speed, a brakeman said, about 75 m.p.h.; the visibility fair—a cloudy sunset.

Unaccountably, the oil rig carrying more than 7,000 gallons of high-gravity crude oil drove onto the tracks at a four-way intersection. The train slammed into it.

The rear oil trailer wrapped around the locomotive and exploded with a thunderous eruption seen four miles away.

The forward oil tanker was thrown 100 yards, badly damaged and leaking, but it did not catch fire.

The train veered crazily on, its four diesel units aflame, its forward trucks knocked off the tracks by the tremendous impact.

Nine of the 11 cars jackknifed into one another like a row of huge steel dominoes knocked askew.

Flame from the initial explosion swept back the length of the train, but only forward cars in the tangled jumble caught fire. The first three of the four diesel units were charred to blackened rubble—reduced, one newsman suggested to hardly more than half their original size.

The last two cars remained on the tracks.

Eleven hundred feet of track were torn up, some of it twisted into grotesque loops around the shattered cars.

Fifteen ambulances came from four nearby towns. Helicopters helped shuttle the injured to three Bakersfield hospitals.

Says Colleges Must Select Carefully

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An Arkansas educator says colleges throughout the state will have to be more selective if they expect to cope with an impending overflow of student applicants.

Dr. Marshall Steel, president of Hendrix College at Conway, told the North Little Rock Rotary Club yesterday there will be an increase of some 1,200 students annually at colleges in Arkansas during the next decade.

At that rate overcrowding would be inevitable, he said. He expected that about half the colleges could handle another 500 students at present.

Dr. Steel indicated he thought the colleges should admit only the best qualified students. He emphasized that selectivity does not mean picking students with the highest grades. Colleges should obtain information on applicants from all possible sources, he said.

Ice Storm Nothing New to the Mountain Boys

WHILE HOPE VIEWED WITH MIXED FEELING THE fourth ice storm of the season, in a section where snow is a rarity, one of the visiting teams at the State Class B Boys Basketball Tournament being held this week at Jones Field House was sightseeing. "Nothing new for us," they said, "when we left home to come to the tournament there was 10 inches of snow." THE BOYS WERE THE STARTING TEAM FROM JASPER, shown with their coach on the steps of Hope City Hall this morning. For those of you who don't know your Arkansas geography, Jasper is about 200 miles north of here in Newton county, between Russellville and Harrison; and its elevation is around 2,000 feet, compared with Hope's 350.

Quake Death Toll Is 3,000 and 5,000 Hurt

By STEPHEN O. HUGHES

AGADIR, Morocco (AP)—Stunned survivors streamed from earthquake-ravaged Agadir today as a Red Cross official estimated the toll at more than 3,000 dead and more than 5,000 injured.

The grim casualty prediction—2,000 more dead than the initial Moroccan government estimate—was made by Dr. Albert A. Rainhard, who flew to Agadir from International Red Cross headquarters in Geneva. The U. S. Air Force, making these estimates public, said they were conservative.

Pleading cries rose from the rubble of Agadir, and rescue workers probed the ruins for untrapped survivors and bodies.

A massive airlift was in progress, carrying the injured northward to hospitals in other African cities.

Europe, America and North Africa mobilized aid for the Atlantic Coast resort shattered Monday night by two earthquakes and a tidal wave.

Roads leading north were lined with dazed Moroccans quitting their ruined homes. Some struggled along on foot, others on donkeys or horses.

Although French, American and Moroccan aid was beginning to pour in, the need remained desperate.

In the tattered tent he set up as an emergency headquarters, city Governor Bou Amrani said he needed food, water, bulldozers and other mechanical equipment to clear the wreckage.

Water and gas mains were broken and empty. There was no electricity except from the emergency military generators which powered floodlights for the round-the-clock digging for bodies and survivors.

As dawn broke, smoke from quake-caused fires still hung over the city.

Evacuation of the shattered city—population 40,000 before the quake—was ordered. Thousands poured into the surrounding fields for the night.

Mass graves were being dug for the victims. There still was no accurate count of the dead and injured.

Spreading Ice Storm Breaks Electrical Lines

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A widespread ice storm caused power lines to break in parts of southeast Arkansas today, tossing live wires into streets and yards.

Arkansas Power & Light Co. headquarters at Little Rock appealed to residents of the danger area to stay away from the lines.

The ice storm was part of an onslaught of bad weather which laid siege to Arkansas. The state was hit by snow, sleet and freezing rain.

This section, still under an icy coating, can expect more of the same tonight and tomorrow. The temperature high for the past 24 hours was 31 degrees with a low of 24.

Electrical failure in the north section of the city left many homes without power today and forced Radio Station KXAR off the air during the morning.

All schools remained closed in Hope and surrounding territory. However, the State Class B boys basketball tournament is going off as scheduled.

Telephone service to 28 south Arkansas towns was cut off because of ice-coated transmission equipment.

Road conditions throughout the state were hazardous. State Police headquarters at Little Rock had no official reports of road closings, but a spokesman said some roads in snow-blanketed portions of north Arkansas "probably had closed themselves."

School shutdowns multiplied. The forecast called for snow or freezing rain in North Arkansas and rain in the southern portion this afternoon and tonight, changing to snow flurries tomorrow.

Locally heavy accumulations of glaze or snow were predicted, along with continued cold temperatures.

Minimum readings today varied from 20 degrees at Fayetteville to 31 at El Dorado.

Highs today are expected to range from the upper 20s to upper 30s, with lows of 20 to 30 tonight.

An AP&L spokesman said live power lines snapped in parts of Pine Bluff and a number of other southeast Arkansas points. He said the breaks were caused by the weight of ice on some lines and by ice-laden trees and branches falling onto lines in other cases.

Power company repair crews worked furiously to eliminate the danger of accidents in the affected area.

There were no reports of any injuries.

Snow fell during the night and early today in a wide section of north and central Arkansas. The depth of new falls ranged up to more than three inches at Blytheville.

Fresh snow piled atop snow from earlier storms in a number of areas. Rogers reported a total accumulation of seven inches.

Officials of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. at Little Rock said "ice bound carriers" resulted in the isolation of the 28 towns in south Arkansas.

The officials said the isolated area lay within a line from Camden eastward to the Mississippi River and a line running from Camden to the Arkansas-Louisiana line.

Camden itself and nearby El Dorado suffered no telephone service interruption. These two cities are on an underground circuit which was not affected by the ice storm.

Among the towns cut off were Eudora, Lake Village, Hamburg, Crossett, Dumas, Warren, McGhee, Monticello, Dermott and Arkansas City.

Telephone officials expected service to be restored sometime today.

State Police and the Arkansas Highway Department described road conditions throughout the state as hazardous.

Tear Gas Used to Break Up Student Group

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—Police used tear gas and high pressure fire hoses today to break up a student demonstration against President Eisenhower shortly after his arrival from Chile.

An undetermined number of persons were injured.

The incident took place as Eisenhower's motorcade passed the School of Architecture of the University of Montevideo on the way from the airport.

In another part of the city, at the headquarters of the university itself, students barricaded themselves inside the buildings. Army trucks armed with light field artillery and heavy machine guns moved into the block in front of the university.

By STANFORD BRADSHAW

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—President Eisenhower flew into Uruguay today on the last stop of his four-nation South American tour.

He was greeted warmly by Benito Nardone, president of the National Council, and praised for cold outline on the map to become his "crusade of friendship."

"America is departing from the broad conscience of a common ideal and an harmonious union," the Uruguayan leader said at Caprasco Airport, where Eisenhower arrived from Santiago, Chile.

"There has befallen to you," Nardone continued, "the high mission of bringing about an identity among the peoples that were born in the same century of liberty and independence and who, as each attained their dream, has had that dream perpetuated by faith in their neighbor."

The President's public appearances in Montevideo were expected to attract the enthusiastic crowds that turned out at his earlier stops. But a reinforced police guard was ordered to one point on the route of Eisenhower's motorcade through the Uruguayan capital, the National University, where Vice President Richard M. Nixon ran into student jeers and catcalls on his visit two years ago.

Despite the precautionary guard, no such reception was expected for

Cancel Plans to Set Off Super Atlas

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has canceled plans to shoot a Super-Atlas nearly 9,000 miles from Cape Canaveral past the tip of Africa over the Indian Ocean.

One unconfirmed report was that President Eisenhower personally turned down the idea.

The Air Force has had the beefed-up Atlas missile on a launching pad at Canaveral for days. Actual firing times were set several times and then postponed because of weather conditions.

When these plans became known in high Washington circles, the State Department reportedly raised the point that no public notice had been given so ships could avoid the impact area. Air Force officials argued this wasn't necessary because the rocket was intended to burn up in the atmosphere at the end of the trip and so would pose no danger.

The unconfirmed report said the matter was brought to the President's attention during his current South American tour, and he turned thumbs down, at least for the present.

The long shot, if it had gone off as planned, would have traveled more than 2,000 miles further than any previous U.S. missile. It also would have outdistanced recent Soviet missile shots from central Asia into the Pacific Ocean. The Soviet Union claimed a range of 7,760 miles for one of these shots and said the missile landed within 1 1/2 miles of its target.

No reasons were learned for the top-level cancellation, but speculation centered on these ideas:

1. Such a military demonstration might strike a jarring note during the President's Latin American goodwill tour.
2. The President noted at a Jan. 13 news conference that the United States has always given advance warning of missile tests over international waters. The Soviets gave advance notice on their Pacific shots, and outlined the target area.
3. Such a long-range Atlas flight might be viewed abroad as a propaganda stunt, trying to outdo the Soviets in a distance race.

Mother of 3 Gets 60 Year Sentence

CHICAGO (AP)—A 35-year-old mother of three, crying hysterically, was carried in a chair out of Criminal Court Tuesday after she was sentenced to 60 years in prison for murder.

Mary Salsi was convicted of plotting with her lover the murder of her husband, Peter, 34, an insurance agent, to collect $24,000 in insurance.

The principal witness against her was Richard Lansing, 23, who pleaded guilty to shooting Salsi and was sentenced to life imprisonment. Lansing, who described himself as Mrs. Salsi's lover, testified they plotted the fatal shooting of Salsi to share the insurance. Salsi was fatally shot in his West Side home Oct. 27, 1958.

CONTINENTAL—World's Heavyweight Champion, Tagman Johansson sports the continental look wearing United Nations attire when he announced he would box U.N. exhibitions in the Gaza Strip.

THE STORY: Phil Bokker continues his search for men who can prove he did not serve with Quantrell's guerrilla band during the Civil War. He is in Kansas City where he talks to a man named Kirk, who survived the raid.

CHAPTER IX

Bokker opened Cowan's Weekly to the Quantrell sketch. He tapped it lightly with his finger. "The man who drew this, John Hovey—he was in Lawrence at the time?"

Kirk nodded. "He was in the hotel. He was brought out with the others, when they surrendered. His name wasn't on Quantrell's list, so they didn't bother him."

"If he was outside the hotel, he was in a position to see what happened?"

Kirk started to nod again, then suddenly exclaimed. He snatched the magazine from Bokker, stared closely at it, then raised his eyes to Bokker's face.

"Yes," said Bokker grimly. "My face—but I wasn't there."

Kirk looked at Bokker a long moment. "I don't know," he said slowly. "I really don't know. The way I was I couldn't see every body. There was a lot of movement back and forth, a lot of shooting and yelling. But I've

I was wounded at Vicksburg in June. In August, 1863, when Quantrell sacked Lawrence I was flat on my back in a St. Louis hospital. I can prove that."

"All right," said Bokker. "Then tell me how your picture came to be here with these others."

"That's what I'm trying to find out. I've had these others identified. This is Quantrell—here's George Todd and Bloody Bill Anderson. Todd was dead. Bill Grayson—this one was killed over in Raytown a couple of days ago."

"By you?"

"No," Bokker said. "I killed Macdonald Pierson. I killed Macdonald Pierson."

Kirk spread his hands. "Yes, I read all about it in the papers. Bokker hit some folks, said one thing and others said another, and I couldn't tell what the real story was. I thought perhaps—"

"My story was true," said Bokker.

"All right," said the man from Lawrence. "I'll take your word for it."

Kirk pointed at another sketch in the old magazine.

"Macdonald Pierson," Bokker said. "Alive. And this other one is Fletcher Trow. Nobody seems to know much about him, but I've reason to believe he's alive."

Pierson Kirk took the magazine from Bokker's hand and pointed at the likeness of Phil Bokker.

"You say this isn't you—you weren't even in Lawrence at the time. Just for the sake of argument, let's say that's all true, but then—then who's the man who's wearing your face?"

Not even Major Holbrook, the Provost Marshal, had thought of that question. But it was the one that Bokker had asked himself for years. A man, wearing his face, was shown in the act of killing another man.

He said, "That's the man I want to find. I want Macdonald Pierson, Fletcher Trow, but most of all, I want to find that man."

Phil Bokker boarded the morning train. The Kansas & Pacific Railroad started shortly after the close of the war, had crept into Kansas, but was now bogged down in the western part of the state. The company was, however, doing an excellent business, shipping Texas steers to Kansas City, and would soon have enough capital to continue its westward building.

Bokker had bought a ticket to the end of the line railroad, a place called Pawnee City.

He entered the day coach and looked around for a seat. The coach was well filled and it was a moment before he found a vacancy beside an elderly man wearing a soiled sack suit. He started to put his valise on the rack overhead and then his eyes fell upon a man seated two seats away.

The man was facing Bokker and recognition came into his eyes.

"Bokker!" he cried.

Bokker strode forward to grip the man's hand. "Paul Shay! It's years—"

"... since we had beds next to each other in the St. Louis hospital," exclaimed Shay.

He was a well-built man of thirty-odd. He wore a serge suit of excellent material. A derby sat rakishly upon his head and a fat gold watch chain spread across his broadened vest.

PORT LYAUTEY, Morocco (AP)—Two American planes from Port Lyauety's U.S. naval station were among the first to speed doctors and emergency medical supplies to quake-stricken Agadir today.

Club Leaders Hold Training Conference

Mrs. Vernon McMurtrey, county home grounds leader for the Hempstead county home demonstration council, presided at a training meeting held in the courthouse last week.

Mrs. McMurtrey introduced Calvin Caldwell, County Agent, who spoke on soil requirements and fertilizer to use. He discussed the humus, drainage, and acidity necessary to successfully grow various shrubs. The Azalea and Camellia require soil of greater acidity than any other shrub. To increase acidity for the soil he told the group how much aluminum sulfate to add per 100 square feet. He also told how to change from acid to slightly acid soil by adding lime.

Mrs. Joann Phillips, Home Agent, discussed points to consider in planning landscape improvements. A family should keep in mind beauty, simplicity, neatness, ease of upkeep, and family recreation when planning the development of the public, private and service areas of the landscape.

The group then went to the Southwest Branch Experiment Station where Cecil Blitt demonstrated pruning, thinning, and controlling growth of various shrubs. These included the Abelia, the spreading juniper, forsythia, the diana, arbutus and a small tree.

The March meetings of home demonstration clubs will have this landscape material for their programs.

Insurance Premium Taxes Up Treasury

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Insurance premium taxes should put about four million dollars into the state treasury this year, Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs said yesterday.

The deadline for paying the premium taxes was yesterday and Combs said checks from most of the 800 companies doing business in Arkansas had reached his desk.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. paid the largest tax, Combs said, $207,776 on $3,300,000 in business last year.

Other companies making large payments included: Aetna Life $124,243, New York Life, $109,000, Equitable Life $75,631 and Prudential Life $75,322.

Monument to a mule?

It would be unusual, to say the least. But just as ludicrous are the many abandoned and dilapidated structures along the highways of Arkansas—all of them decaying relics of the past. AIDC is cooperating with the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce in a program to rid the roadside of unsightly, unused buildings—including tumbledown mule barns—and make our state more attractive to visitors—whether they're vacationers or industrial prospects.

To Fight Ouster From School Board

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Elmer Kirk intends to fight back against those who ousted him from the Southside School Board.

Kirk said yesterday he would initiate recall action against Board President Winford Trent and members R. M. Weaver and Ralph Leonard.

They cast the affirmative ballots Monday night when the board voted 3-1 to oust Kirk, allegedly because he is not a resident of the taxes in the district and maintains a residence there. He operates an agricultural supply business in Batesville.

Kirk is used to fighting for his job on the school board. He wasn't seated until he had carried an election contest to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Haskell Roach was certified as the victor in the December, 1956, election. The Supreme Court overturned the certification and ruled Kirk was the victor. He was seated in March of 1958.

Ford' Sister Dies

DETROIT (AP)—Margaret Ford Ruddiman, 92, sister of Henry Ford and last surviving member in the family of William and Mary Litogot Ford, is dead.

This is the time of year when months spent in outdoor cold and steam-heated houses produce cracking skin. So it's the logical time to do something about it. Coming to your aid are some brand new beauty aids designed for bath time use. A moisturizing lotion (left) for hands and body is free-flowing and non-greasy. It is also rich, the makers say, in the moisture your skin needs. A rich, pale golden bath oil (center) has been created especially for dry skin. Fragrant with lemon and orange, it turns a bath into a luxury as it counteracts the ravages of winter. It also helps to counteract the drying effect of soap on some skins. The moisturizing lotion comes into use again for the body (right) after your bath. It helps to prolong the beneficial effects of the oil, and both its creamy consistence and fragrance leave you feeling pampered.

Designed for town or travel, this washable white leather chesterfield (left) has leopard trim on collar and slanting pockets. A dress (right) in velvety soft suede is cut tunic fashion. Color is pale beige. Large patch pockets are set exactly at the hipline.

DOROTHY DIX

Should Driver Marry Victim of Accident

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I used to go steady with a girl. One night, while I was driving, our car hit another. Now she has a scar on her neck and walks with a limp. At first she was angry with me. Later she realized I was not to blame. She is still friendly, but it isn't the way it used to be. Maybe it's me; maybe it's her.

But many of her friends and a few of mine say I ought to marry her. They say I have a responsibility toward her because it was my fault she has lost her leg.

Dear Sad Sack: I think the idea of marriage is nonsense. You have both apparently fallen out of love—or have been crashed out of it, and any marriage based on sympathy or an unrealistic sense of duty will lead only to unhappiness. In the end the girl would be worse off than she is today. As a first step, stop feeling sorry for her matrimonial chances. There are thousands of girls with limps and scars and even less manageable hurts who have made wonderful marriages.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am a mother over 50 with four children, all of whom are married. They have had a step-father 24 years. My youngest son served his time in the Navy. He quit school at 17 to enlist. He recently got his discharge and has a wife and daughter nine months old at her mother's. He expects us to give him $150 to buy her a plane ticket. We don't have that kind of money. He is past 21 and doesn't have a job. He swears at me and says I never did a thing for him. His Daddy passed away 20 years ago. Should I fight with my husband to give him $150? — Unhappy

Dear Unhappy:

To give your son money would only encourage his mooching. Have the courage to stand firm. Had you done so before, he wouldn't be cussing you now. To that extent it's your fault that he acts the adolescent.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My steady and I are constantly bothered by a girl. She used to go with him. We are at a loss what to do. Please help us.

R. and S.

Dear R. and S.: She is the loser, you the winner. Be a good sport. Be kind to her, invite her around once in awhile.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed, and address her in care of this newspaper. (Released by The Bell Syndicate) state as risky and growing worse. There were numerous reports of falling trees in the ice storms which struck southern Arkansas last night and continued today.

In central and northern Arkansas, there were no major reports of interruptions in power or telephone service.

AP&L at Little Rock dispatched three emergency crews to help repair damage to lines at Pine Bluff and other areas where the worst rash of breaks occurred.

The company said it also had reports of "considerable damage" from the ice storm in parts of southwest Arkansas, but was unable to get details on that area immediately.

All public and private schools in the Little Rock area cancelled classes today. School closings also were reported in the area of Fayetteville, Rogers, Ozark, Booneville, Jonesboro, Searcy and El Dorado.

Oklahoma Park at Hot Springs has canceled its horse racing for the remainder of the week.

Hamburg's power supply was knocked out temporarily by ice-coated trees crashing into lines, AP&L reported.

Shortly before the judge put the case in the hands of the jury Van Rie made a dramatic plea for his acquittal, saying of Miss Kauffmann's death: "I never did this."

"As God is my witness," he said emotionally, "I'm telling you the truth."

He admitted he had committed adultery with Miss Kauffmann, but insisted "I never kicked, nor hit, nor beat" her.

Better Not Try

IRVINGTON, N.J. (AP)—Any one who plans to rob Frank Gilfo's liquor store had better think twice and then change his mind.

Gilfo put two bullets into a fleeing bandit who tried to hold up the store Tuesday night. There was a blood-stained trail for police to follow.

The robbers' score over the years: five attempts, not a cent stolen.

Gilfo's score: one bandit killed, two wounded and three disarmed.

The 190-pound, bespectacled Gilfo keeps a gun and a club within reach behind the counter. He is 34 years old.

Traffic Deaths Up

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's traffic deaths rose 4 per cent in early morning darkness, saw a January compared to January 1959, the National Safety Council reports.

The increase, from 2,700 to 2,870, centered in six populous states, the council said Tuesday.

That collectively accounted for 192 more deaths in January this year. The six states are Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, New Jersey, and South Carolina.

Defense to End Case in Finch Trial

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The defense said it would introduce last night after a painful playback of the big scene (the death of 33-year-old Jean Finch) in the trial of a defense attorney.

Defense attorney O'Neil B. Cooper approached the climax of his exhaustive summation Tuesday by arguing:

"That Mrs. Finch invented stories of being attacked by her doctor husband simply to get the doctor over a barrel and to get a barrel of money out of the divorce she had pending."

"That there was no conspiracy to kill Mrs. Finch and even if there had been what finally happened was an accident."

"That Marie Anne Liholm, the Finch housemaid who testified for the prosecution, is a 'sweet and wholesome' girl, but not necessarily an entirely credible witness."

At issue in the two-month-old trial is whether Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, and his mistress, Carol Tregoff, 23, are guilty of conspiracy and murder in the shooting of Mrs. Finch 30 last July 18.

Three Killed in Louisiana Wreck

The dead were Johnny Lee Jones, 29, driver of one car; Miss Lizzie Jones, 30, his aunt; and Walter Collier, about 50, occupant of the other car. All were from Bastrop.

Leonard Clark, 33, of near Bastrop, driver of the car in which Collier was riding, was brought to a local hospital. His injuries were not considered serious.

Oaklawn Plan to Extend Racing Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Oaklawn Park today pushed plans to extend its race meeting another week.

The State Racing Commission yesterday granted Oaklawn permission to extend the race season to April 2 after the track postponed the remainder of this week's racing because of bad weather.

General Manager J. Sweeney Grant said all major feature races, except the Oaklawn Derby, will be moved forward one week.

The Derby highlight of Oaklawn annual meeting, will be run as scheduled March 26, the original closing day.

Oaklawn missed one day last week because of snow but the track had no plans to make up that day.

When more snow fell yesterday, the management announced the postponement and appealed to the Racing Commission.

The actual number of racing day remains at 31.

Tourney Pictures Polaroid Prints

All 11 pictures of the Class B state basketball tournament in today's Star were made from Polaroid prints, including the enlarged action shots — the latter operation credited to the new Fairchild Illustrator electronic engraver, of which The Star obtained the first in Arkansas.

A new photographic process was introduced in the 2-column team pictures to improve printing quality. The pictures were shot with an Ascorlight electronic flash on the camera, but off to one side and angled toward the wall behind the players was a second or "slave" electronic flash, the two outfits triggered to fire together. The result was a white wall, making the players stand out in better contrast.

Girls Given

More Rest in

Skate Contest

By JACK HEWINS

Associated Press Sports Writer

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — An extra five hours of rest was granted the feminine gender today when the start of competition in the 1960 World Figure Skating Championships was postponed until 1 p.m. (PST).

Two dozen girls, most of them just in — and weary — from the Olympic competition, had been scheduled to take the ice at 8 a.m. Each was to have skated three school figures on the opening program of the five-day world meet.

The delay was ordered when it was learned several of the contestants would arrive later than planned.

The 24 will skate just two figures each today, and complete the required six Wednesday morning. Free skating for women, winding up their competition, is Thursday night.

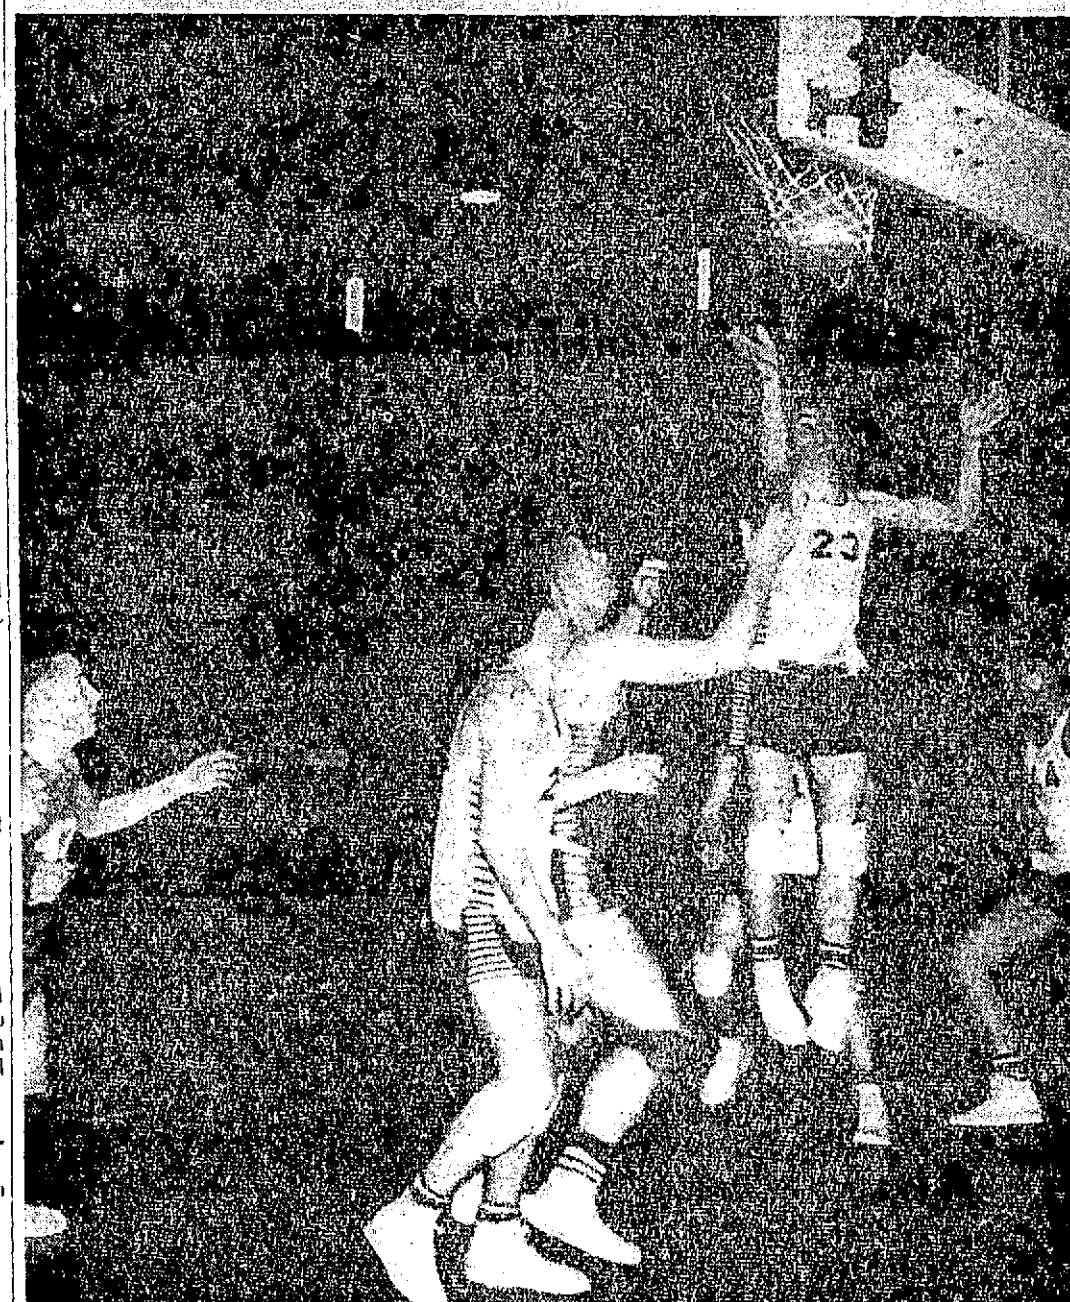

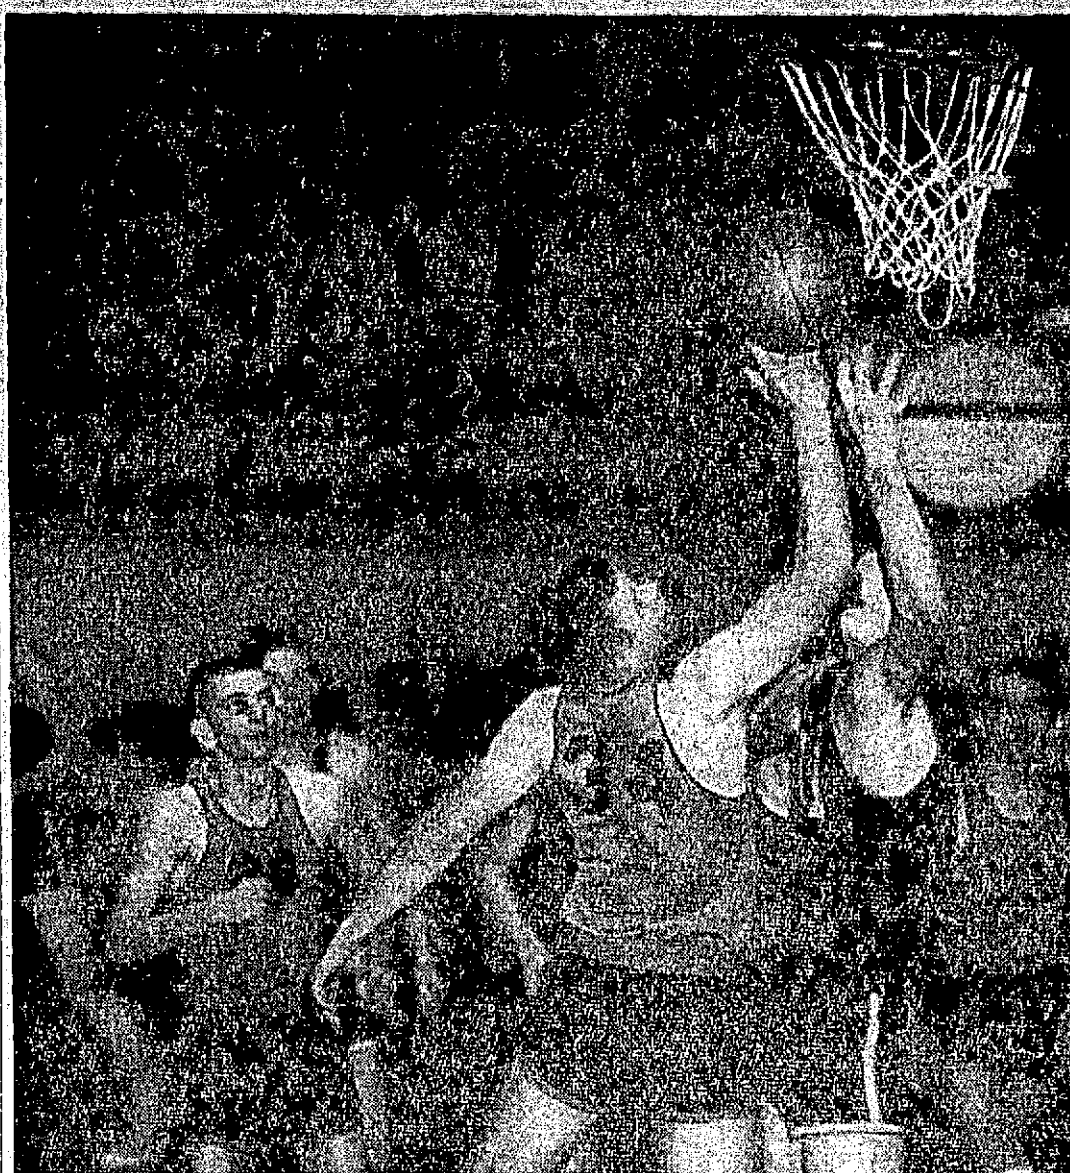

Carol Heiss of New York, the Olympic champion and defending queen of this world tournament, is expected to repeat.

Most of the pre-meet excitement was centered around the men's competition, left wide open by the retirement of Dave Jenkins of the United States and the withdrawal of Karol Divin of Czechoslovakia. They were 1-2 in the Olympics.

Divin suffered a hip injury several weeks ago. Despite this, he skated in the Olympics but decided against an appearance here. Jenkins has resumed his medical studies at Western Reserve University.

Donald Jackson of Canada and Alain Giletti of France were poised for a hot contest for the world title. Jackson won the Olympic bronze medal, beating Giletti by less than two points — championships Saturday night and he is being asked to take

Porkers to End Season Against SWU Mustangs

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks close their 1959 Southwest Conference basketball season tonight against Southern Methodist, a team which was in the title race until last week.

Successive upsets by Baylor and Texas knocked the Porkers out of the title chase. They put a 9-4 record against Arkansas 7-6.

SMU shaved the Porkers 72-70 in an overtime game at Fayetteville three weeks ago, but the Mustangs won't be feeling the pressure tonight.

Arkansas, shooting for a better than .500 league season, will. Another feature in the contest is Clyde Rhoden's duel with the Arkansas individual scoring record for conference games.

Rhoden, a 6-3 junior, passed two marks Monday night against Baylor. He ran his league scoring total to 243, erasing a record of 235 set in 1958 by Fred Grim, and his free throw total to 79, topping a mark of 76 set in 1947 by Al Williams. Each point Rhoden puts through the basket tonight will add to one or both of those records.

Arkansas Coach Glen Rose plans to start his new lineup, putting John Blasengame, Ronnie Garner, Jerry Carlton and Pat Foster on the floor with Rhoden. Blasengame recently won a starting berth from Alan Morrison.

Throwers Are Ahead

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "The throwers were ahead of the batters."

That's how Manager Bill Rigney summed up Monday's opening session of spring practice by the San Francisco Giants.

There were, however, a notable exception.

Willie Mays, the $65,000 center, slammed four home runs over the left field fence of Phoenix Municipal Stadium off as many pitchers.

Grimm to Coach Too

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — Manager Charlie Grimm, back for a third term as pilot of the Chicago Cubs, has announced he'll also be the third base coach. Grimm added that Lou Klein will coach at first base, Charlie Root, pitching coach, will be in the dugout and Elvin Tappe will handle bullpen duties.

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — An undertaker found Monday a bullet hole through the heart of a man previously declared to have died of natural causes.

Justice of the Peace H. M. Newman, who investigated the death of Chester B. Wallace, 45, withdrew his earlier verdict and ordered an autopsy.

Wallace's body was found in his apartment Monday.

Jasper, Amity Catch Fancy of 1st Round Fans

By TEDDY JONES JR.

Jasper and Amity caught the fancy of the fans in opening first round games of the Arkansas State B Boys Basketball Tournament which got underway at the Jones Field House yesterday.

Jasper racked up 97 points in last night's final game in downing Hermitage 97 to 53 to crack the previous state mark of total points scored by one team in a single game set by Dover in the 1955 State B tournament. Brazel of Jasper scored 43 points, falling two short of the record set by Lovelady of Dover in the 1955 tourney.

Amity, winner of District 7W and Southwest Arkansas' prime championship contender, displayed enough scoring punch to impress followers and fans that they are a team to be reckoned with.

In the tournament's opening game Amity downed Newark, winners of District 2 South, 80 to 70. Lloyd of Amity scored 30 points and was not only the game's high scorer but outstanding in all respects in getting his teammates off to a fast start.

Hickory Ridge, runner's up in District 6, dropped Dover 57-55 in a close contest in the second game Tuesday afternoon.

Mountain Pine, winners of District 5S, dropped Caraway 82-64 in a well played opening game Tuesday night. Mountain Pine showed enough potential to be troublesome to Jasper in second round play.

Considering the weather, a good crowd was in attendance at both afternoon and night sessions and many fans who had planned to return to their homes and return to Hope for Thursday's second round games were stranded, due to icy roads and hazardous traveling conditions.

Johnnie Burnett, Executive Secretary of the Arkansas Athletic Association, was in attendance to supervise the tournament and get things off to a good start. At his request several announcements were made over the public address system urging fans to be careful in driving over the icy dangerous roads.

Burnett expressed regret at the tragic accident last week that took four lives of the Odom team returning from a District Tournament and indicated the Arkansas Athletic Assn. was concerned over the necessity of athletic team travel under such conditions and intended to take the problem of scheduling under advisement and study.

First round play continues beginning at 2 p.m. Wednesday with Marmaduke of District 3 playing Ishmiquin of District 1 West at 2 p.m.

Mammoth Springs, winners of 2 North play Scranton runner up in District 4 in the afternoon's second game scheduled to start at 3:20.

Wednesday night's play begins at 7:30 with Kingsland, one of the tournament favorites, meeting Casa of District 5 North.

Second game Wednesday night ends Sparkman, winner of 7 E, meet Holly Grove, winner of District 6.

Speculation continued early today as to whether all of the teams would be able to get to the tournament due to road conditions and State Police closing of dangerous highways. This was especially true of those teams coming from the northern part of the state, such as Mammoth Springs, Lincoln, Casa and Marmaduke.

Amity 89 — Newark 70
Amity took the opening game of the tournament by defeating Newark 89-70. This advances the Amity team to the second round of the tourney where they will meet Hickory Ridge at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Leading Amity scorer was Loyd with 30 points. Woodson was second for Amity with 23 points. High point man for Newark was Griffin with 21 points.

Hickory Ridge 57 — Dover 55
Hickory Ridge defeated Dover by a 57 to 55 score in the second game of the afternoon session of Tuesday's tourney games.

Mahon led his team to victory with 21 points. Leading scorer for Dover was Boley with 26.

Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. Hickory Ridge meets Amity in second round game.

Mountain Pine 84 — Caraway 64
Mountain Pine advanced to the second round of the tournament by defeating Caraway in the first game of the Tuesday night session by a score of 84 to 64. High point man for the game was Woodard of Mountain Pine with 25 points.

He was followed by his teammate Grisham, with 24 points. Leading scorer for Caraway was Jennings with 20.

The next time the Mountain Pine team sees action will be on Thursday afternoon when they meet the high scoring Jasper team at 3:20.

Jasper 97 — Hermitage 52
High scoring Jasper overcame Hermitage in the final night game to close out the first day of state tournament play. The mark of 97 points scored by a team in a

Would Void Equipment Purchases

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Garland County Grand Jury has asked for legal action to void the purchase of some county road equipment.

The jury, investigating the county judge's office, yesterday asked Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs to order Prosecutor Walter J. Herbert to file a suit contesting contracts for sales of certain equipment.

Filing of the suit by March 3 was requested.

Specifically mentioned in a letter to Dobbs were contracts negotiated by County Judge H. C. Warren and Paul Goodwin.

The jury said "Chancery Court suit should seek to void contracts made by Warren and Goodwin, either individually or acting as agent for the R. A. Young Equipment Co. of Fort Smith.

The suit should seek to recover equipment traded on these purchases, the jury said, as the jury feels this equipment was disposed illegally.

The jury last week indicted Warren on five counts involving misconduct in office. Dobbs suspended Warren from office as soon as arrest warrants were served Monday.

Goodwin has not been indicted, but his name appears as a witness on one of the indictments against Warren.

In Arkansas' county government setup, the county judge also heads the county road department.

Two Earth Rumbles

HELSINKI (AP)—There were two mild earth rumbles along the Russian-Finnish border in the past month, scientists said today.

They added that might account for the story that a Soviet rocket base blew up.

The report published abroad claimed the explosion occurred Feb. 2. Elio Vesanen, director of the Helsinki University Seismological Institute, said tremors occurred Feb. 2 and Feb. 20. "I am sure it was earth tremors and not explosions," he said.

Chose Jail to Fines

DETROIT (AP)—Charles W. Lewis, 47, chose to spend 90 days in jail rather than pay fines totaling $523 for 105 parking tickets.

The most recent ticket was dated in December 1958.

Lewis told Traffic Judge John D. Watts he had been walking since then.

A routine check disclosed the unpaid tickets after Lewis was arrested for jaywalking.

Must Produce Friend

DETROIT (AP)—Police spotted a car stuck in a snowdrift here and offered assistance.

The owner, James M. Atkins, 46, was inside, calmly mixing a cocktail.

Brought into Traffic Court on a charge of driving without a license, Atkins said he was not the driver. His wife had given the keys to a friend to drive him home. The friend had gone for a tow car.

Judge John D. Watts gave Atkins until March 23 to produce the friend.

Kansas and K State After Big 8 Title

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kansas State and Kansas, those two arch-rivals of the midlands, are so well matched this time in their annual run for the Big Eight Conference basketball title today that it is settling a whole season of scuffling with a draw from a hat.

Kansas, beating Oklahoma 63-52 Tuesday night, pulled into a first place tie with K-State at 9-1 each with one game to go at home against multi-whipped Nebraska.

If both win, as expected, they'll be co-champs and the conference's berth in the NCAA tournament will be determined by a draw since the teams split their regular season two-game series.

The Kansas Jayhawks, after their first Big Eight title since 1937, have come back into contention behind the improved play of sophomores Wayne Hightower and Jerry Gardner, and veteran Bill Bridges.

Striking St. Bonaventure, getting 50 points from brothers Tom and Sam Stith, ran its winning string to 15 in a 115-56 rout of St. Vincent (Pa.); unranked Seattle snapped Idaho State's winning streak at 17 with an 89-53 shellacking, and Peppordine clinched at least a tie for the West Coast Athletic Conference title by defeating Loyola of Los Angeles 76-60 in other key games.

Elsewhere: LaSalle, still in the running for a bid to the National Invitation Tournament, ran its record to 16-5 with an 82-77 decision over Scranton as all five regulars hit double figures; Duquesne closed its home season with a 73-62 whipping of Fordham; Niagara beat Colgate 92-82 as Al Butler, the nation's No. 3 scorer, hit 28 points; Marquette rallied to beat Xavier of Ohio 67-61; and Washington of St. Louis won a 2-0 forfeit from the University of Chicago.

After the teams had played a 20-20 first half tie, Chicago coach Joe Stampf refused to let his team return to the court, charging poor officiating.

Graves was taken to a hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Pool Hall Owner Fatally Shot

LITTLE ROCK (AP) A pool hall owner was shot fatally at his establishment last night and his divorced wife was held on an open charge in the slaying.

Charles F. Graves, 50, was killed by a bullet in the back.

Police quoted witnesses as saying Mrs. Dorothy Graves had telephoned her former husband several times during the evening. She went to the pool hall shortly before the shooting, officers said.

Detective Sgt. L. L. Cranford said Graves was found near a bar with a .25 caliber pistol bullet in his back near the left shoulder.

Mrs. Graves was standing some distance away when officers arrived.

Old Cotton Surplus to Be Held Back

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced today that it will hold back its stocks of 1959 and prior crop cotton so it will not compete too much with the 1960 crop.

This is expected to bolster prices for cotton grown this year.

The Agriculture Department will do this through a sales price program covering government-owned cotton.

Beginning Aug. 1, the start of the 1960 crop marketing season, the minimum sales price of government-owned cotton produced prior to this year will be higher than the sales price on cotton grown this year.

The minimum sales price of 1959 and prior crop cotton will be the higher of the market price or 114 per cent of the government price support rate recorded for the crop under a "choice" plan of production. Under this plan, farmers are allowed to overplant federal cotton allotments 40 per cent but must accept price supports lower than those who comply with allotments.

A minimum sales price on 1960 cotton will be the higher of the market price of 110 per cent of the price support for choice "B" cotton.

Thus, the sales price of 1960 cotton—whether sold by the grower or by the government after being acquired from the grower under price support operations—will have a price advantage over the older cotton in government hands.

First street cars in New York City in 1932 had granite ties to support rails. They proved to be too noisy. Wooden ties were substituted.

Skirts Short, Hats Huge in Paris Styles

By CYNTHIA LOWRY, AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Skirts are short. Hats are huge bells which cover a lady down to her chin. These are the words from Paris beautiful television fashion show this spring. If Monday night's boys did a tuncful turn with dear old dad.

The fashion news was delivered by NBC's special, "Paris a la Mode," as mannequins from the establishments of 15 of the top French dressmakers showed the clothes from their new collections.

In color they were gorgeous to behold.

Clothes were the stars of the show, but between the fashion sequences there was some interesting dancing, some songs with witty, sophisticated lyrics. A good time was had by all—all us women, anyway.

Earlier, over on ABC, Bing Crosby put us in a happy frame of mind with an easy and relaxed hour of music. Guest Perry Como and Bing made a fine singing team and three of the four Crosby boys did a tuncful turn with dear old dad.

In summary, CBS' photographic Mode, as mannequins from the coverage of the Winter Olympics was magnificent. It fell down on French dressmakers showed the clothes from their new collections.

was informative and interesting, and so was Art Devlin when he was allowed to talk about his specialty, skiing. Walter Cronkite, a fine newsmen, was assigned to nursemaiding the electronic computers.

This left most of the talking to Chris Shonkel and to Bud Palmer. Both talked too much, too nervously — Shonkel talked about nothing so incessantly that interested viewers couldn't hear the background reports on the distance of the ski jumps — which he often neglected to pass on to us.

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Robert Adler, 24, had tonsillitis and was home at Chaska Beach in Huron Monday.

Lisa O'Connor, 4, and her sister, Carol, 7, plunged through thin ice into the waters of Lake Erie about 60 feet off the beach.

Adler's wife, Carol, saw them go down and called her husband, a 24-year-old Huron high school teacher.

Adler jumped out of bed and crawled over the ice on his stomach.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pulaski County politics will get a new geographical look.

County Judge Arch Campbell yesterday approved a petition from the County Election Commission to consolidate.

Rejects Protest

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government today rejected a Soviet protest against the new Japanese-U.S. security pact and simultaneously approved an agreement for more than 400 million dollars worth of trade with the Russians.

In a note handed to Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Fedorenko, Premier Nobusuki Kishi's government said the Soviet Union has nothing to fear from the security treaty. Russia's insistence that the pact is aggressive is "not conducive toward contributing to the maintenance of world peace," the note asserted.
